

Susie Silver

Featured Artist

Susie Silver is an artist, educator, coach, consultant and speaker. She is known for translating topics into meaningful discussions and creating effective takeaways to remove roadblocks and spark success. Susie's contemporary artwork is inspired by nature and color and offers her viewers a moment of escape from our everyday noise. She also facilitates painting workshops for adult learners, and offers 1:1 coaching for creatives. Susie is an active advocate for LGBTQ rights and offers ally training for local schools and businesses so they can better support the LGBTQ community. She currently resides in Cary, NC with her wife, and two children.