I grew up in an earth-sheltered home near Apex NC. As a child I spent my time reading books and running around in the woods. My family didn't have a TV- so I drew the creatures I saw in nature and ones I imagined up. Later, I moved to Ohio where I graduated from the University of Cincinnati with a degree in Industrial Design. Before becoming an artist, I worked as a toy designer, a footwear designer, and a welder. I live in Raleigh NC, where I've been working as an artist since 2010.
